

- a. Repeat the “digit extraction” algorithm pretending to have a 8-digit calculator extracting 6 digits of the decimal representation of  $\frac{1}{19}$  at a time.
- b. Using mathematical reasoning, explain carefully why this algorithm “works”.
- c. What problem can occur during the calculations (due to rounding), and how can you correct this problem?